(Your Name) Awarded Prestigious Financial Consultant Credential

The Master Registered Financial Consultant Certification Board (MCB) is proud to announce (first name, last name) of (your company, city, state) has received the impressive credential of Master Registered Financial Consultant (MRFC). The mark of this professional status is a pledge by the consultant to continued education, professional improvement and ethical behavior towards their client base.

(first name, last name) has taken their commitment of excellence to the next level by fulfilling all the requirements including: experience, education, licensing, business integrity and successfully passing the rigorous MRFC exam. In this day and age of consumer scrutiny of the financial services industry and its representatives, it is significant to have proper credentials identifying a solid business background and integrity when affecting the financial future of others.

With (XXX) years of service, (last name) provides clients with a variety of services. (enter information about your company)

"We feel that to obtain the MRFC credential is significant when dealing with the public," declared Barry Dayley, MCB Chairman. "Those who have earned it are a testament to transparency of purpose and integrity of client relationships. We salute their efforts and their dedication."

Moreover as an MRFC professional, (last name) must agree to professional improvement evidenced by forty (40) hours of annual continuing education and by adherence to the principles of the International Association of Registered Financial Consultant's (IARFC) Code of Ethics. This ensures the ongoing commitment to excellence in serving.

The IARFC provides the ethical structure to which the financial consultant must answer. "We feel our Code of Ethics is an honorable binding contract," reiterates IARFC Chairman H. Stephen Bailey. "To serve the public under this oath is the fundamental purpose of any member of our profession."
